

EAST SIDE NEWS

Son.
A bright little son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Taylor in Diamond street. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Bessie Riggleman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Riggleman, of the South Side, and a graduate nurse.

Returned Home.
Mrs. Elliott, who has been a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Brown, in Diamond street the past several days, returned to her home near Shinnston today. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Stella Brown, one of the teachers in the East Side schools, who will spend the holidays there.

Home from Pittsburgh.
Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Drummond, of Newton street, have returned from a few days' stay in Pittsburgh. Mr. Drummond, who has been ill, went down to consult a specialist.

Missionary Society.
The Home Missionary Society of the Diamond street M. E. church pack packed a box of useful articles and sent to the Rust Home at Holly Springs, Miss., Thursday.

Betsy Ross.
A splendid meeting of the Betsy Ross club was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Linda Bonham in Center street. The meeting next month will be held at the home of Mrs. Hamilton at Bell Run.

Accepted Position.
Ralph A. Courtney, who recently returned from Texas, where he was in training in an aviation field for government service, has accepted a position in the bookkeeping department of the Robinson Coal company. Mr. Courtney was employed in the Monongahela Bank for a number of years before entering the government service.

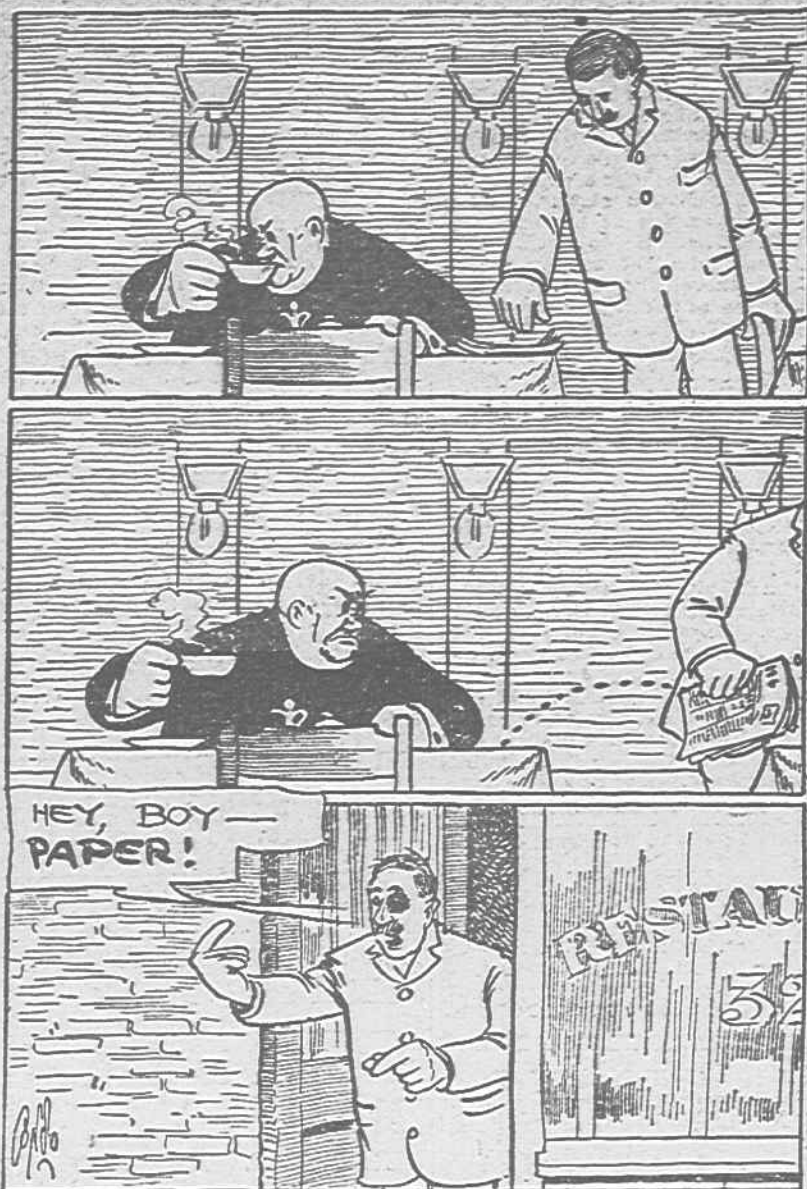

Son Very Ill.
Mrs. Rose Moratt Watson, of Morgantown avenue, has received official information that her son, Joseph Watson, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, is very ill of tuberculosis in an army hospital there. An effort will be made to have the young man brought home if he is able to stand the trip.

Whole Family Has Flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stanton and their whole family consisting of several children are all suffering from influenza at their home at Norwood. For several days they had no help and were unable to wait on each other, but a nurse has been secured and with assistance from the neighbors the family is now being cared for.

Personals.
Edward Henderson, of Guffy street, made a business trip to Grafton today.
Brice Joffile, of Catawba, is here to spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Harris, who resides near Morgantown avenue.
Mrs. Frank Coogler is recovering from a severe illness of influenza.

A Hoover Fits the Spirit of Useful Giving

Human help is scarce, costly and independent. Electric help is handy, cheap and always ready.
The Hoover is a fine Christmas gift this year, for it conserves the time of women who have many other duties awaiting them.
It conserves woman's strength.
It conserves the family health by getting rid of germ carrying dust.
It prolongs the life of carpets and rugs.
It's a fact that when you give you give the best there is on the market.

Tricycles

Some have solid tires, some are rubber, all are well built, easy running, and will furnish no end to healthy amusement for the boy who is a live wire.

For Christmas—a Grafonola

You can give your family nothing that will be so generally appreciated by every member as a Columbia Grafonola.
For mother, the Grafonola means the dear old songs mother loves, the gems from opera; for father, snatches and catches of popular music; for the youngsters, merry dances and up-to-the-minute song hits; for the wee kiddies, the Mother Goose rhyme and bedtime stories they love.

Columbia Grafonolas and Records

To make perfectly sure of getting the right Grafonola at the right price, come here. Select the instrument that suits you best, choose your records—then you will find our arrangements as to terms are the most convenient.
